RE: Positive Increase for 12 month rolling OSAT score for Holiday Inn® Big Rapids, Michigan / BRPMI

Dear Eric & Fred:

Congratulations -- your hotel was in the top ten within your brand family for the largest increase in OSAT scores from the previous month for the month of August!

Creating "Great Hotels Guests Love" should be a key focus for every hotel within the IHG system. By consistently delivering on our brand promises and the services our guests desire, we gain their trust and strengthen the possibility their future accommodation choice will be with us. Your hotel has demonstrated -- through the guest survey system "HeartBeat" -- that our collective guests are enjoying your hotel's services and facilities to a high degree.

In order to be one of the best hotels, it takes strong leadership from a General Manager dedicated to build a service culture where the staff is empowered to exceed guest expectations regularly! It also takes a high level of commitment from ownership to provide the facilities and resources to support a pro-active and guest-focused environment for the hotel team to thrive!

I thank you for working together to create a hotel that builds guest loyalty and differentiates itself from the competition!

Sincerely,

Tim Genovese, Vice President

Positive Guest Experience

A letter received at the Courtyard New Albany from a guest with an exceptional stay

I am a long time guest of the Marriott hotels and have had the opportunity to visit many of your locations domestically. The amenities, layout and comfortable rooms are several of the main reasons why I continuously stay with your organization, but the overriding factor is the hospitality offered by the staff.

Today, the Courtyard in New Albany suffered a power failure. This was a planned outage but with any plan there exists the opportunity for deviation. Your team headed by Sari Linkus responded in an exemplary manner to this situation.

As I write this e-mail I find irony in the timing since I had made a mental note to send an email to Sari and the team after my last stay. I wanted to let them know how much I appreciated their commitment to their guests. The warm greeting, being in a room at the end of hall, remembering what I have for breakfast, their continued focus on customer satisfaction... These items may sound a little trivial but not to me.

As the power system failed in New Albany today your team stepped up and went beyond anyone's reasonable level of expectation to take care of their guests. I want you and the team in New Albany to know that their efforts are recognized and are very much appreciated.... Thank You!!!! They did a great job tonite... You have a team that you should be very proud of and know that their collective efforts led by Sari provide context and meaning to the phrase.... Exceptional Customer Service.

Please extend my thanks for the teams focus and constant efforts toward assuring a world class customer experience!

Fairfield Inn and Suites New Buffalo...

Just a quick email to note the superb service provided by all of the members of your staff here at the Fairfield Inn, New Buffalo, Michigan. More specifically, two of the associates, Lisa (breakfast setup) and Shondalee (evening front desk) were particularly helpful. Both Lisa and Shondalee are the consummate professionals and a credit to the Marriott organization and the General Manager, Erik Molineaux. Please have a copy of this correspondence placed in their personnel files and pass along my sincerest thanks to them.

“Superb service provided by all of the members of your staff”

Staybridge Suites Indianapolis...

We stayed here the weekend of 10/18-10/19 and found the hotel to be wonderful! We had come from another hotel that was dirty and we refused to stay. As we checked in I have to say Drew was phenomenal! He really listened to our needs as we had driven 8 hours and were tired. He empathized with our frustration of coming from a dirty hotel and made us feel comfortable with staying at Staybridge Suites. Drew is a real asset to your company. We found the room to be clean and the bed was great! Our daughter slept on the pull out couch and we found the linen easily. I loved that there was a kitchen in the suite. We had a wonderful stay for my mother in laws 90th birthday party. Thank you Drew for making a bad situation into a wonderful time.

Residence Inn by Marriott Lafayette...

AWESOME! that is one word. Treated like we owned the place. Staff was friendly and very accommodating. The breakfast & afternoon social were a good way to start and end the day. We had visitors and they were treated as guest of the property, (do not get that much at hotels). Clean inside and out, maintenance was in the room next to ours, they were removing a whole A/C unit...very little noise. The staff at the desk always answered questions, they never had to "get back with you; or I'll have to check on that!" I have been a points reward patron of another brand....may just have to re-think that. LOVE LOVE LOVE our Stay here!

Hampton Inn and Suite Riverton...

I stay at hotels often for business and it is important for me to have the ability to utilize the work out facility during my stay. Many hotels offer only a treadmill or stationary bike option, but this facility had 3 treadmills, a stationary bike, elliptical, and free weights including a bench. Having this variety is always an amenity that leaves me satisfied and keeps me coming back.

Holiday Inn Express Acme...

I've reviewed this hotel before, but just had to say "thanks again" for your service and consistency. My husband and I stayed here again before and after a 3 week trip to SE Asia and we were welcomed by our familiar & warm faces both times and automatically given our favorite room near where we leave our car and on the first level. It's a simple thing, but after very busy and long travels, coming home to this hotel is a great way to relax before we drive back to Boyne City the next day. Also so relaxing before we travel to have a short taxi ride. It's worth the extra we spend to have some ease and relaxation before and after long travels!

“Thanks again for your service and consistency”

Staybridge Suites Kalamazoo...

We went to K'zoo to visit my 90 year old Mom as she was in a recovery center after being released from the hospital. On our second day back home we received the call and returned to Michigan for her funeral. After her funeral in Livonia, Michigan we returned to Kalamazoo to help put Mom's affairs in order. The staff recognized us when we returned for our second stay and were very accommodating making what can be a difficult time very peaceful. They honored my military rate but provided an upgrade to a large suite which worked so well as we completed all the work that must be done when the last surviving parent passes. When we finally got to our room that first night there was a basket of "goodies" accompanied by a note signed by the entire "Staybridge Family" expressing their condolences. The kindness of the entire staff and their willingness to assist us at this difficult time is greatly appreciated. We have stayed at this property on previous visits and will certainly be staying with them again should we return to Kalamazoo.

"The kindness of the entire staff and their willingness to assist us at this difficult time is greatly appreciated"

Holiday Inn Big Rapids...

I took my grandchildren there for their birthday and siblings and parents came for pool party every one had a great time ages 4 through 37. In the morning we had a great breakfast and off to the pool until noon check out much better than 11. The rooms were very clean and the beds very comfortable. I have cancer and this was a great break for me and a beautiful memory.. My family and I all live within 10 miles of this holiday inn so for me I could not have made a long trip. When I told the staff I was using a walker they offered to help me in every way possible. I plan on taking the kids back again soon. Thank you Holiday Inn.

Holiday Inn Express Sidney...

My stay on both Monday and Wednesday evening was outstanding. The hotel looks great and the staff was phenomenal at making sure I was taken care of. I came into town for work and was ecstatic that there was an IHG property in Sidney as I did not want to stay in either Watford City or Williston. Please be sure to keep up the great work!

Holiday Inn Express Wisconsin Dells...

Very nice stay in the Wisconsin Dells. Hotel staff way too nice. Smiling and helpful all the time. Property inside and out, including rooms were very clean and up to date. Pool area surprisingly bigger than expected. Has adjacent game and party rooms and exercise room. Very good breakfast.

Residence Inn by Marriott Lafayette...

I've stayed here on multiple occasions and every time have been welcomed like family by the incredible staff. The hotel serves every practical need for a comfortable stay, even for extended periods. Nice rooms, kitchen with full fridge microwave stovetop and dishwasher makes long term stays more comfortable. Location is central, surrounded by shopping and restaurants. Breakfast has great variety and served everyday. The early week nightly socials are a nice way to unwind and grab a bite and a beer after a long day. Where this hotel really stands out is the staff and level of personalized service each guest is shown. Every member of the team is helpful and friendly, often getting to know you by name. Big shout out to the shuttle driver Steve who will go the extra mile every time to make sure you're well taken care of. Definitely a place I'd recommend if you happen to find yourself in Lafayette.

"Every member of the team is helpful and friendly, often getting to know you by name"

One Person Can Make A Difference

A team member at the Holiday Inn Express Wisconsin Dells helped turn a guests visit around

My wife and I travel four to five times a year and have been loyal patrons of Hilton and Marriott Properties. I had not stayed in a Holiday Inn hotel for at least 10 years, as my last experience was not that great.

My wife and I were touring Wisconsin last week and had booked a two night stay at a hotel in Reedburg. We were so disappointed in the hotel because of the strong musty smell of the entire building and room. I booked the 2nd night of our stay from this musty room at your Holiday Inn Express. My wife has severe health issues and we decided we could not stay a minute longer after we had been there for 30 minutes. We checked out immediately and followed GPS to your hotel. The GPS was not accurate so I called and spoke with your front desk clerk Jaque (female). She gave us directions.

Upon arrival she was very friendly and helpful. We told her of our experience and that we were a day early. There was room at the inn and she gave us the same rate as our reservation (although it was higher for Saturday night). She turned a disastrous day for us into a happy one. Your facility was beautiful both inside and out and we enjoyed watching families play in the indoor pool.

The breakfast both mornings was plentiful and enjoyable. One person can make a difference being the face of a brand and Jaque has lead me to include Holiday Inn Express into my future travel plans.

Quality of Excellence

The Staybridge Suites Indianapolis - Carmel received the Quality of Excellence award

The Staybridge Suites Indianapolis – Carmel received the Quality of Excellence Award. The top 16 performers in the brand are given this award based on overall satisfaction scores.

The property performed at a 92.3% overall satisfaction score for the year (July 13 through June 14) with an overall ranking of 10th. This is an award that is not easily achieved and according to General Manager, Jesse Stauffer it is very gratifying to see everyone's hard work paying off.

Jesse Stauffer and Mary Donley accepted this award at the annual IHG Conference in Vegas this October. This was not the only honor awarded at the conference. Director of Sales, Mary Donley also received the “Director of Sales of the year” award for the Staybridge Suites brand in 2014. Great job Staybridge Suites Carmel!

Each of these properties should take great pride in their success. Congratulations! The properties that have passed and received this award include;

Record Setting October

The Holiday Inn Express Acme had a great month due in part to a large extended stay group

With the winter season upon us most properties tend to slow down in the colder months with less people traveling. This was not the case at the Holiday Inn Express Acme this October. They had a record setting month due in part to a large extended group stay.

The group was an IT team that is with a company called PBS systems. Bill Marsh, a car dealership in Acme had gotten a hardware upgrade for all of their computer systems and with the new hardware came new software. The group staying at the property was in the area to train the employee's at Bill Marsh on these new systems.

The group came to the property looking for reasonable accommodations for an entire month and Assistant General Manager; Jennifer Henning went above and beyond to give them just that. Henning's handles the majority of sales at the hotel and due to her being able to build a trusting professional relationship with the company she was able to not only meet but exceed their expectations.

"She is truly an asset to the company and grows in her sales abilities daily," said GM JoEllen Vert.

On average for October the typical occupancy is about 69%, with an average of 155,000.00 in revenue, an 87.00 ADR, and RevPar of about 62.00 for Holiday Inn Express Acme. The best year the property had for October was in 2011 since the property opened, until this year. They had a growth over 2011 in Revenue by almost 35,000.00, the occupancy went up by at least 4% and had a $12.00 growth in ADR, with a growth of $13.00 in Revpar.

A great month is seeing growth consistent with the market. For the Holiday Inn

Express Acme however October was record breaking. This October they gained 22% in revenue over 2013, 13% in occupancy over 2013, were able to grow the ADR $3.38 over 2013, and RevPar we grew $16.03.

It was a job well done by the entire team at the Holiday Inn Express Acme. The type of service they provide is what keeps guests coming back. Congratulations on your great month!
